B A N G A L O R E.

S i r,

With reference to Government Proceedings No.680-1/Muz.F. 249-12-2 dated 26th November 1912, sanctioning an additional allowance of ½ seer of rice with condiments to the temple of Eswaraswamy built by and calling for proposals for reducing the establishment of the Chatram, one Subba Sastry at Parasurampur in the Challakere Taluk, I have the honour to append in the margin the existing scale of establishment and other charges of the institution in question, and to state as follows.

~~Cook.~~	R$ 5-0-0.
Sweeper.	" 3-0-0.
Contingencies.	" 1-0-0.
Feeding and Nehemi charges.	" 22-2-0.
	31-2-0

2. The Amildar of Challakere Taluk reports that as raw rations are being given to the travellers in the Chattram, and as the Cook ~~attended~~ attached thereto is 78 years of age and unfit for further service, his services may be dispensed with, the whole work of the Chattram being conducted by the sweeper under the supervision of the Dharmadarsees, and that out of the savings of Rs. 5/- thus effected being the pay of the Cook a sum of Rs. 2-8 may be appropriated towards the cost of the additional allowance of ½ seer of rice with condiments sanctioned to the Eswaraswamy Temple at Parasurampur in the Government Order quoted above.

3. As for the balance of Rs. 2-8 the Amildar of Challakere Taluk and the Assistant Commissioner Chitaldrug Sub-Division recommended that the same may kindly be granted towards the cost of the daily allowance of 1 seer of rice and condiments by way of Nitya Nevedya to the Sri Anja

Aneyaswamy Temple at Challakere built and endowed by Gudi Subba Rao the present Cook of the Chattram whose services are now proposed to be dispensed with.

4. Subba Rao is reported to be a pious and altruistic individual, who has dedicated either to this temple or to some charitable act every pie of his income over and above the little that is required for his personal support. By reason of his old age and destitute condition (having neither wife nor children nor even relatives) it is reported that he richly deserves to be a Nehimidar. But as the end and aim of Subba Rao is to see to the perpetual and proper conduct of Puja in the temple built by him he prays that, instead of Nehimi, a daily allowance of ½ seerof rice and condiments may be kindly sanctioned to the Sri Anjaneyaswamy temple built by him, the cost thereof being met from the source pointed out in para 3 supra, and the same allowed to be enjoyed by the Pujari in addition to the pittance of Rs. 1-4 which he (Pujari) gets in the shape of monthly pay.

5. The Amildar of Challakere and the Assistant Commissioner Chitaldrug Sub-Division recommended that this charge can be met without prejudice to the bonafide travellers resorting to the Chattram. I therefore request that sanction may kindly be accorded to the above proposals which do not involve any additional cost to Government.

6. The scale of establishment and other charges of the said chattram will stand as noted in the margin after the above proposals are sanctioned.

Sweeper	3-0-0
Contingencies	1-0-0
Feeding and Nehimi charges	27-2-0
	31-2-0

7. The file of vernacular papers ending with Challakere Amildars report No. L. 251 dated 9th instant is enclosed for favour of perusal and kind return.

I have the honor to be,

Sir

Your most obedient servant,

Deputy Commissioner.
